About

The Faculty of Law and the Centre for Military, Security, and Strategic Studies (CMSS) are pleased to host the Cyber Threats to Canadian Democracy Conference at the University of Calgary on 25-27 August 2025. Spanning over two days of insightful speakers, moderated discussion, and keynote talks, this conference will address a number of issues pertaining to the security of Canadian democratic processes, including: municipalities and cybercrime, critical infrastructure and resources, cyberwarfare, technological risks and solutions, artificial intelligence, research security, mis/dis/mal-Information and elections as well as human vulnerabilities and responses.

The global cyber threat landscape is quickly evolving and requires cross-sector collaboration to protect Canadians. This conference, the first in a series of events over the next few years, will gather experts from industry, government, policing and academia to analyse major threats to Canadian democracy and discuss solutions to advance Canada's cyber resilience. Thanks to the generous support of our sponsors, we aim to bring this important subject matter and its many facts before the Canadian public.

Sincerely,
The Organizing Committee
